Part of a literacy series divided into Early Years materials for three- and four-year-olds, Programme 1 for four- and five-year-olds, Programme 2 for children aged five years and above, and support materials. This Programme 1 audio-cassette features a song for each letter.

This carefully structured workbook aims to help children to move from recognizing initial sounds to word building. The activities provide reinforcement and consolidation of word level skills and are suitable for either group or independent work.

Structured with lesson plans at the front, this title features 32 pages of photocopiables that include extension work and reinforcement.

An edition of the songs that provide an effective way of learning how to form all 26 a-z letter shapes, by associating them with body parts. The rhyming songs use language and concepts that children already have, promoting learning by association.

Your child could be a tactile learner - needing to touch things to learn. Your child could be a visual learner - needing memorable, clever images to look at. Your child could be an auditory learner - needing engaging stories and rhymes to listen to. The wonderful thing about this Phonics Touch & Trace book is that it is multisensory, allowing your child to learn letter shapes, letter sounds and develop a real awareness of words in a way that suits them best!

Featuring all the A-Z Letterland characters, this flap book provides a fun and interactive way of familiarising very young children with the letters of the alphabet. Each colourful spread shows a lively scene, with two or three Letterlanders.

#1 New York Times bestseller James Dean puts a groovy spin to the classic children's song "The Ants Go Marching" with everyone's favorite cool cat. Join Pete the Cat as he rocks out to this classic tune with a supercool twist in this paper-over-board picture book. Your child, or even your classroom of children, is sure to want to march along with Pete, 1, 2, 3!

This sequel to the 'ABC' book introduces 21 popular spelling patterns in full-colour scenes. Bright illustrations and super stories make this book essential for children who are already
