My Brother's Shadow is a story based on Kaia's feelings, her inner world and despair. But there is nothing else going on in terms of plot. I wish this book had more balance between Kaias's inner monologue and the events of the story. If you liked this book and want something slightly less depressing (and more

Tom Avery has written an outstanding novel that packs an intense impact. Kaia's first person narrative creates a bond with the reader that results in sympathy for her situation and in celebration of her triumphs. "My Brother's Shadow" is easy to read, but tough on your feelings. The story is poignant, but not maudlin.
