The Hall of Thor's Might is a cavern on Cimmeria where Cimmerians may be tested by the Asgard to determine their level of advancement and "maturity". Those who enter the Hall must pass the Test of Worthiness in order to have the real form of the Asgard revealed to them. The Hall itself was accessible through an Asgard transporter, taking the form of a pillar with the image of Thor's Hammer upon it, deep in a forest.

The Hall of Mjolnir is the name given to the passageway within the labyrinth deep underground on Cimmeria. As a means of protecting the planet, a monolith near the stargate uses a scanning beam to identify the Goa'uld, known as Etins, and sends them to the labyrinth. There a holographic projection of Thor explains that the labyrinth leads to Thor's Hammer, a device from which only the host can leave alive.
